

MONSTERS

	THE MONSTER OF VICTOR FRANKENSTEIN	QUASIMODO	THE ELEPHANT MAN
REAL PERSON OR CHARACTER ?	Character	Character	Real Person
WHO CREATED HIM?	Mary Shelley	Victor Hugo	His parents: Joseph Rockley and Mary Jane Morrick
WHEN ?	1818	1831	He was born in 1862.
BOOK HE BELONGS TO	Frankenstein	The hunchback of Notre-dame	-----
HIS PROBLEM	He wanted to be good but people treated him badly because of his appearance.	He fell in love with a girl he couldn't be with.	He had Proetus Syndrome, which causes overgrowth in organs. He had the right leg and arm deformed along with his head.
COULD HE BE HAPPY?	No, he couldn't.	Yes, in the end he kind of could.	No, he couldn't, as his father's new wife didn't let him.
HOW DID HIS LIFE END?	The Monster commits suicide.	He starves to death next to her lover's grave.	He died of asphyxia in his sleep when he was 23 years old